Read the given passage and answer the following questions:

There was a king named Bruce. He was defeated in a battle. He ran away from the battle field and hid in a cave to save his life. He was very sad and had lost all hope. He started losing confidence and he thought he was good for nothing. While he was thinking this he saw a spider trying to reach its cobweb. The spider climbed on the wall of the cave but it slipped and fell down. Again the spider tried to climb the wall and this time it almost reached the web but fell down again. The spider instead of giving up kept on trying and finally reached the web. King Bruce thought that if the tiny spider even after falling so many times didn't give up its goal even he should try and not lose hope. King Bruce gained his confidence.
